Dear Colleagues,
It is our great pleasure to cordially invite you to attend the International Congress of Dermatology, Cosmetics and Laser 2020 (ICDerm 2020) that will be held on 30 September - 2 October, 2020 in Tehran, Iran.
Based on our previous experience, we have designed this meeting to cover many interesting and up to date topics in clinical dermatology, dermatopathology, cutaneous surgery, lasers, and cosmetic dermatology. We invite your active participation in the form of your attendance and presentations in order to contribute to the scientific quality and success of this meeting.
Tehran, our host city, will provide you many opportunities to encounter the traditional Persian hospitality, as you will surely enjoy the history, architecture, cuisine and shopping that Iran has to offer.
Iran, our ancient and beloved country, is the land of one of the oldest civilizations in the world. I encourage you to not only utilize this opportunity to enjoy the scientific programs but also to use this rare chance to visit our country's historical sites and cities (e.g. Isfahan, Shiraz, etc.) which are indeed unique in the whole world.
We look forward to seeing you at the Congress.
Sincerely,
Fahya Dowlati, MD, PhD (Congress President)
Alireza Farazi, MD (Congress Secretary General)

Iran in Brief
Iran is a country with the total area of 1,648,195 sq. km in the Middle East. The capital of Iran is Tehran (Teheran). The Iranian civilization was founded 9000 years ago in the southwestern part of present Iran. The most famous dynasties of the Persian Empire were the Achaemenids, the Parthians and the Sassanids. Some of these dynasties ruled over vast parts of the Asian continent for over 450 years. History has seen over 20 ruling dynasties in Iran. Before 1935 it was officially known as Persia. In 1935 the official name changed to "Iran" and after the 1979 Islamic Revolution, the official name was changed to "Islamic Republic of Iran (IR)". Iran is also well-known for caviar, hand-woven carpets, saffron, pistachios, rice, tea, etc.

Tehran in Brief
Tehran is the capital of Iran and Tehran Province. With a population of around 9 million in the city and 16 million in the wider metropolitan area, it is the largest city of Iran and the 2nd-largest city in Western Asia, and the 3rd-largest in the Middle East. There are many cultural places to visit in Tehran including Golestan Palace, Niavaran Palace Complex, Sa'dabad Palace Complex, Sahlgar Gharani-e Palace, Dabest (Nature) Bridge, Bacheh Fereydoun, Tehran's Bird Garden, Carpet Museum, Jewelry Museum, National Museum of Iran, and Milad Tower. The average temperature in Tehran in April is very mild between 12-23°C and occasionally parched with periodic rain.
